

General Convention Is Coming To Columbus

What is General
Convention?

General Convention is the legislative body of the Episcopal Church (think Episcopal Congress).

Like Congress, our General Convention has two houses:

- House of Deputies – four clergy & four lay deputies from every diocese.
- House of Bishops – all bishops (including retired)

Like Congress, for a resolution to pass, it has to pass both houses in the same form.

Unlike Congress, the General Convention meets once every three years.

At the same time as General Convention, the triennial (once every three years) meeting of the Episcopal Church Women takes place. There is also an event for youth from all over the country.

General Convention:

- Sets priorities and the three-year budget for the Episcopal Church
- Sets policy for the National Church
- Amends the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church.

General Convention Is Coming To Columbus

What is General
Convention?

General Convention is the legislative body of the Episcopal Church (think Episcopal Congress).

Like Congress, our General Convention has two houses:

- House of Deputies – four clergy & four lay deputies from every diocese.
- House of Bishops – all bishops (including retired)

Like Congress, for a resolution to pass, it has to pass both houses in the same form.

Unlike Congress, the General Convention meets once every three years.

At the same time as General Convention, the triennial (once every three years) meeting of the Episcopal Church Women takes place. There is also an event for youth from all over the country.

General Convention:

- Sets priorities and the three-year budget for the Episcopal Church
- Sets policy for the National Church
- Amends the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church.

