

Barth House 2008

During the 2008 school year, the college ministry at Barth House, on the campus of The University of Memphis, saw several changes as The Rev. Terry Street accepted a call to a parish setting, leaving the ministry at Barth House. Rev. Street left for his new cure in early September. The ministry at Barth House was led by a graduate student Lay Chaplain beginning on September 15th, 2008. Due to unprecedented budget cuts, College Ministry under the auspices of The Diocese of West Tennessee on The University of Memphis campus came to an end on January the 30, 2009. The space at Barth House continues to be used by several groups from The Diocese until decisions are made as to the use of the existing space in the future. A planning committee on College Ministry at Barth House, chaired by the Rev. Ollie Rencher, will be looking at ways in which the Diocese can maximize the use of the space on campus.
