

Canon Chaplain to Retired Clergy and Clergy Families 2008

The Rev. Canon Reynolds S. Cheney II continues in the position of Canon Chaplain to Retired Clergy and Clergy Families, a position created by Bishop Johnson in September of 2007. Responsibilities include pastoral care and concern for both clergy spouses and clergy children as well as to the retired clergy and spouses of the Diocese. The intention continues to be to provide a wider net of pastoral ministry to clergy families in addition to the Bishop's primary oversight of clergy health and wellness.

A "Planning for Tomorrow Conference" for clergy, both active and retired, was sponsored by the Church Pension Fund on April 4-5, 2008. It was held at the downtown Westin Hotel, and all expenses were paid by the Pension Fund. There was a special program for retired clergy and spouses and widows of retired clergy in addition to the regular conference.
