

Diocesan Property and Casualty Insurance Committee

January-Consulted by phone with a parish regarding a particular ministry under consideration, addressing aspects of the program and extent of counseling from an insurance perspective.

June-Participated in review meeting of Diocese insurance renewal program with Church Insurance Agency Corporation client services representative and representatives of the Diocese.

August-Reviewed renewal coverage for St. Columba Conference Center and confirmed adequacy of coverage.

November-Addressed questions on Diocese insurance program regarding Episcopal Church Home with representatives of the Diocese and Church Insurance Agency Corporation and resolved all issues.

In summary, all matters in regard to property and casualty insurance for the Diocese of West Tennessee and its parishes, missions, and organizations appeared to be adequate and in good order during 2007.